

Verse 1

I break my back
And I tie my tongue
Hoping that one day
My chance is gonna come
But it just feels like
It ain't never Gonna take

When the day is closing
And life feels heavy on your mind
You reach in your pocket
Ain't got a dime
You try to see the good in life
But it gets harder
Everyday

Chorus

I just can't rid this feeling in my soul
That keeps telling me this life has so much more
In a little time I'll find my way
Cause I'm not gonna stop until I

Verse 2

Nothing less than a real man
In this world will survive
It's lonely without her
Here by my side
Don't take for granted
The way she eases
Your mind
