

Start All Over Again

Once we were happy together
I held your hand in mine
Seeing a flower in your hair always made my steps seem so light

Now I know I made a mistake
But don't forget you mistreated me too

I still want you to call me your man
I wish we could start all over again
I wish we could start all over again

Am I trying to hold on to you?
Tell me am I already too late?
I'm drinking the coffee you gave me, and writing this song down just to say

That I know I made a mistake
But don't forget you mistreated me too

I still want you to call me your man
I wish we could start all over again
I wish we could start all over again

Right now it feels like
I won't find another
Who's as easy to be near as you
I'm just trying
To put the pieces back together
Do you think you can stay?
Just a little bit longer?
